SUNDAY SAW START OF UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN.

GIVE FOR YOUR SOUL'S SAKE!

If You are "Humane" How Can You Refuse?

Be able to look "Our Boys" in the eye and say to them "I could not go with you to fight, but, thank God, I helped to 'back you up.'"

You'll be proud to say that, and, if you can't honestly say it—well, America is no place for you.

The drive for the United War Workers' Campaign lasts until Saturday night. Bourbon's quota is $52,000. Have YOU done your part?

Sunday, although a rather disagreeable day, saw the start of the United War Workers' campaign in this city for $52,000, the county's quota in the big drive. Though several of the various committees were confined to their home with illness the others took up the work, and made a house-to-house canvass in all the residence districts of the city. It was a good day for the purpose, as nearly everybody was "at home" for the day, having been previously prepared by the local press for the visitors.

Owing to the ban placed on public gatherings the mass meeting scheduled to be held at the court house on Friday night as a preliminary to the great drive, was declared off. A meeting was held in the Bourbon-Agricultural Bank building, instead, at which final arrangements were perfected and the workers given their instructions. At this meeting a club known as the Three Hundred Dollar Club was formed. This Club started the ball rolling with subscriptions and pledges amounting to nearly $4,000. Several subscriptions of five hundred dollars were also taken.

The colored people of the city participated in the drive Sunday and raised a total of $1,300. The Victory Boys' Club went to work with a will to raise their allotment. Twenty-five boys presented themselves for the work. Each one agreed to raise the sum of $5.00, earned by his own labor. Each one was to select the name of a soldier, in whose name his contribution to the work was to be tendered. The same was true of the Victory Girls. Both made good records for the first day's work. The boys were captained by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith and Prof. Lee Kirkpatrick, while the girls were in charge of Misses Louie Bruer and Elizabeth Crutcher. In the county the work was well in hand under the various committees. North Middletown No. 1 reported a total of $5,300 collected in a few hours. Their quota had been placed at $4,500. Ten members of the Club gave $300 each. The campaign will continue through all of this week. It had been the fond hope of the County Chairman and of the chairmen of the committees that Bourbon's quota would be raised in the one-day campaign, but due to insufficient publicity, the illness of several workers and a variety of other causes, the work could not be accomplished. The workers were again busy yesterday in the city and county and will keep up their work until the end of the campaign.

In order to keep the matter fresh in the minds of the public THE NEWS has been asked to republish the general outline of the campaign. Kentucky has been asked for $1,770,800. Of this amount Bourbon county is asked to raise the sum of $52,000. The county's quota had originally been placed at $28,000, with an additional fifty per cent., making it total $42,000. To this is to be added a budget of $10,000 for the local Y. M. C. A. Subscribers may contribute to the general fund of $42,000, or they may contribute exclusively, as they desire, to the United War Workers' fund. The local Y. M. C. A. will not get the allotment of $10,000 until the $42,000 for the general fund is first raised. Payments may be made as follows: One-half on December 2; one-fourth on January 15, 1919; and one-fourth on March 1, 1919.

We cannot too strongly urge on our people to contribute liberally to this campaign, as, in the nature of this object it is one of the most worthy that has come up during the war. The care of the soldiers after the war will become just as necessary as during the war. So, "Salute the flag, and go to it."

Last night before THE NEWS went to press Secretary Z. L. Wilcox, of the Y. M. C. A., stated that the work was well under way in the city and county, but it would be impossible to give the exact amount raised up to last night. Several precincts had not reported, and in others the work was going slowly, so that he could not give the sums. He stated further that it was the opinion of those having charge of the financial end of the campaign that Bourbon county had already raised about half its quota, about $25,000.

WEDNESDAY OPENING DAY AT LATONIA RACES.

There was much rejoicing among horsemen at Latonia when they learned that the Latonia meeting was now assured, and that the season would get under way to-morrow, Wednesday.

It has been a trying ordeal for many of them, particularly those with small stables and slender purses, but they have passed over the long period of inaction in good shape and are now looking forward to the opening when they will be given an opportunity to earn money to pay feed bills and other expenses.

General Manager John Hachmeister is equally pleased at the outlook for the meeting and declares it will be a most successful one, provided the weather conditions are favorable. He stated that the meeting would positively run ten days and possibly longer.

The change in opening dates has brought about a revision of the dates on which the stakes are to be run, and these changes have been handed out by Secretary Campbell.

According to the new schedule the first and second Saturday of the meeting will be featured by two stakes. On the first Saturday both the Fort Thomas handicap and the Sinton Hotel special will be run off, while the following Saturday will have as its features the $10,000 Latonia Cup race at two miles and a quarter and the Gibson Hotel Special.

Secretary Campbell also named the days when ladies will be admitted free to the course. These are Thursday, November 14, and Wednesday, November 20.

Following is the list of stakes with their revised dates:

Latonia Inaugural Handicap, Wednesday, November 13; Fort Thomas, Saturday, November 16; Sinton Hotel Special, Saturday, November 16; Autumn Selling Stakes, Tuesday, November 19; Queen City Handicap, Thursday, November 21; Latonia Cup race, Saturday, November 23; Gibson Hotel Special, Saturday, November 23.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.

There was a short session of the Bourbon Circuit Court at the court house yesterday, owing to the fact that the flu ban is still on and there will be no jury trial at this session. Judge Robert L. Stout presided and Commonwealth's Attorney Victor Bradley was at his post.

The usual motion hour was observed, and the time of the Court was occupied with hearing of the ordinary appearance docket. Judge Stout ordered a special grand jury to convene to-morrow (Wednesday) for the purpose of indicting two prisoners, both colored, now in the Paris jail. The Court appointed J. Will Thomas, Logan Bryan and Jos. Leach to act as Jury Commissioners. According to previous instructions from the Court, Sheriff W. G. McClintock notified all petit and grand jurors summoned to appear yesterday that they need not do so, as there would be no jury trial on account of the restriction placed on public gatherings by the State Board of Health on account of the influenza ban. The Court then adjourned until Wednesday when the special grand jury will be in session for the purpose indicated above.

ARMISTICE SIGNED

Great World War Ends--Kaiser Flees to Holland; All Princes Exiled

Popular Uprising is Successful in Berlin and All Large German Cities—Every Dynasty To Be Suppressed.

ORDERS FOR TROOP TRAINS ON L. & N. CANCELED

Following a series of rumors regarding the signing of the armistice between the warring elements in Europe, all the rumors afterward proving premature and unconfirmed, this part of the world was startled at 3:00 yesterday morning, by the receipt of the following official news:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—Armistice terms have been signed by Germany, the State Department announced at 2:45 o'clock this morning. The world war will end this morning at six o'clock, Washington time, eleven o'clock Paris, France, time, and five o'clock in Paris, Kentucky. The armistice was signed by the German representatives at midnight. This announcement was made at 2:50 o'clock."

Immediately upon receipt of the news, which came through the Train Dispatchers' office at the Louisville & Nashville depot, in this city, pandemonium broke loose. The whistles of all the engines in the yard, the big whistle on the round house and at other places, shrieked forth a welcome of the great news, while the big tower bell on the roof of the Paris fire department also "told" the news. Sleeping Paris was awakened under the impression that there was a big fire in progress, but, gaining an inkling of the news, shouted a little and returned to their slumbers, content to await official confirmation of the good news, which came in abundance, and of an undoubted authenticity in the morning.

The Kaiser and his eldest son, Crown Prince Frederick William, have fled to Holland. The revolution which is in progress throughout Germany seems to have thrown fear into the hearts of the Emperor and his son and caused them to seek asylum and refuge in a neutral State.

The London Daily Express says it understands that the German armistice terms are even more stringent than those forecast October 31. Germany will be absolutely deprived, newspapers state, from further military power or action on land, sea, and in the air.

The revolution is spreading to all parts of Germany. Street fighting has taken place in the streets of Berlin. Many persons have been killed and wounded. The Crown Prince's palace has been seized by the revolutionists. Peoples' government has been established in the greater part of Berlin and in other cities in Germany. Leipzig, Stuttgart, Cologne, Essen and Frankfurt have joined in the revolution.

The great Krupp gun and steel works at Essen are in the hands of the revolutionists. Lieut. Krupp Von Bohlen-Halbach, the head of the works, and his wife have been arrested.

The Danish frontier is being strictly guarded by the German Soldiers' Council, in order to prevent the escape of rich people, generals and other high officers. The eagles of soldiers' helmets have been removed and red bands substituted.

FIRE DESTROYS TWO HOMES NEAR LITTLE ROCK.

A blaze originating from leaking gasoline in the garage of James Duncan, colored, of near Little Rock, Friday, destroyed Duncan's automobile, and soon communicated to the residence adjoining. The home was entirely consumed by the flames, together with all the contents. Duncan's loss will amount to several thousand dollars with a small amount of insurance.

The cottage of Robert Hillman, colored, another resident of Little Rock, was destroyed by fire, when a bucket of tar caught fire, and communicated to the home. All the household effects were consumed in the flames. Hillman had a small insurance on the house and contents.

SHELBY COUNTY BARN BURNED WITH CONTENTS.

Two barns in Hartford place, near Shelbyville, were burned Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with all their contents, entailing a loss approximating $10,000, with only $4,300 insurance. Both barns were owned by John Hartford. One, valued at $2,000, was insured for $1,000 and the other valued at $500 for $300.

In the larger barn, Leo Gibbs and J. C. Warfield had stored their entire crop of tobacco, about 10,000 pounds, which was totally destroyed. Their loss is estimated at $5,000, with insurance for $3,000. In the other barn Mr. Hartford had stored a lot of bar furniture and fixtures on which there was no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Value of Good Roads.

The direct effect that changing bad roads into good roads has upon land value and the general economic welfare of a community is shown in several concrete illustrations gathered by the United States Department of Agriculture. The department has just issued a statement on the subject, based upon a mass of information gathered by the office of public roads, which is making a special study of the economic effect of road improvement in the country. According to data gathered, where good roads replace bad ones, the values of farm lands bordering on the roads increase to such an extent that the cost of road improvement is equalized, if not exceeded. The general land values, as well as farm values, showed marked advances, following the improvement of roads.

Temper.

Temper is queer things anyway. We snap, and growl, and scold, and fume, and fret for no cause under the sun that we know of and when trouble really comes we smile and take it as unconcerned as though it was the most commonplace affair. We will wait for a week over a slight that was all in our imagination and grew all the madder, because we know that the whole matter is an invention of our own. The fact is, when we feel good, a cyclone can't spoil our equanimity; but if we chance to be out of sorts, and have the blues, we are going to get mad and stay mad and if we don't find any provocation we will make one. The man who gets the blues and who is there who doesn't get them—is a most unfortunate person. Ten minutes after the attack begins he has concluded that he is the most abused man on the face of the earth. Every person in the town is working against him—he knows it and it is no use to deny the fact. If the unfortunate man is married, he wreaks disgust upon his wife and boy and cow.

Get Busy, Children!

There are too many boys and girls in the country and city, more in the latter than in the former, who are prone to look upon work as beneath them. There are thousands of them on the threshold of maturity who retain the same views and habits which found encouragement in their earlier years. What becomes of this class of people. Some of them awaken and after a desperate struggle overcome the habit and learn to work, to save, and to prepare for the inevitable rainy day. Many of them, however, drift and drift until they become acceptable recruits in the hobo army.

Try This One Once!

Here is a puzzle that puzzles everybody. Take the number of your living brothers, double the amount, add to it three, multiply by five, add to it the number of your living sisters, multiply the result by ten, add the number of deaths of brothers and subtract 150 from the result. The right figure will be the number of living sisters and the left will show the number of living brothers. Try it and see.

LETTERS FROM BOURBON COUNTY SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Now that there is some prospect of peace, letters from the boys overseas will prove doubly interesting. One of this kind was received recently by Mrs. Ruby Arnsperger, of Paris, from her son, Lucien Arnsperger, who is in the Ambulance Corps of the American Expeditionary Force in France. The letter follows:

"Somewhere in France, Sept. 8.

"Dear Mother:—I suppose you think I have forgotten you entirely, but it has been impossible to write the last week or so, due to the fact that we were at the front. There were things more important to take up the time of the officers than that of censoring letters. Also every available truck was in use. Therefore we had to put off our letter-writing to a more convenient time.

"Since leaving the front several days ago we have traveled over a great deal of ground. We stopped at several places for a few hours only to rest. None of these places are worthy of mention except one. That one I shall never forget. It was in a little village on a Sunday that we had a few hours rest and a good dinner with chicken and rabbit on the menu. That is the reason I shall never forget it. I mention this just to let you know that we are treated fine along the lines of care in France.

"As I mentioned above we have just returned from a drive at the front. Our division started the drive, and I can assure you that we made a great record for ourselves. We gained in all about twelve miles and a half on a twenty mile front. We took the Huns completely by surprise, and sure broke up a fine playhouse for them. They were certainly set for the winter. Their dugouts were all in readiness for the cold weather. Some of these dugouts were anywhere from thirty to forty feet deep, made of cement, and lined with wood. They had a good supply of eats and drinks around and plenty of furniture. Some of them had dining rooms with their steins still ready for use. This stuff was all taken by us for souvenirs. There were plenty of women's garments found around in different dugouts, and in houses. There is one house in the town we are in at present where a fine wardrobe of women's apparel was found. They were all fine clothes, mostly silk. The above goes to show you how they were fixed in the greatest style for the winter.

"The retreat was very fast, but we met with quite a resistance at some places along the line. The Huns used no infantry at all. They used only artillery and machine guns. These were fired right into our infantry, and it was a miracle that we were not all wounded. On a hill just before we entered a certain town I saw a shell burst not over forty feet above our men's heads. I thought they would all be wiped out, but when we got there we found not over sixty wounded and dead, in all. It was in this town I found Revell Whitridge, and gave him first-aid-to-the-injured, and he went back to our station and had his wounds dressed. His wounds were slight and he will be out some time soon. They were shrapnel wounds in his legs and one in the right foot.

"From to-day's paper it looks as if we may have peace. But we are not paying much attention to this, as probably Germany is only looking for a rest. What we want is a full surrender, and we will get it. Also I believe it is a plan of the Kaiser, as he knows Wilson will refuse his offer, to put them to fight into his men. He can tell them that he asked for peace, but the Allies refused to accept. But peace is near at hand. That is the way we look at it.

"I received a letter a few days ago from Will S., dated Sept. 8. I was very sorry to hear of Bishop Batterton's death. I also received a letter from you dated Sept. 4. These were the only letters I have received in a month's time. I will write again, as we are now located in a town for quite a while, I think. We have the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the K. of C., the Salvation Army, etc., with us, so you see we are quite comfortably located.

"Well, this is about all I can get to write of at this time, as there is nothing of particular interest going on. You will hear from me again pretty soon, I hope. With love to all, I am,

Your Loving Son, "LUCIEN.

Miss Mary K. Stone, formerly of Paris, who is in England with the Dr. Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40, as one of the nursing staff, writes to her sister, Mrs. C. B. Terwilliger, of Paris, as follows:

"October 17, 1918.

"My Dear Olive:—This is such a pretty day for England that I feel like writing you a long letter. It is now 2:00 p. m., and it has only rained three different times, and that is something great. You just don't know how much I enjoy your letters. I am getting them regularly now. I have thought of you so much as having to be by yourself. I know Dr. Terwilliger must have hated to leave you at this time, but of course army duty called him. I have tried to find out where Unit No. 69 was sent, but have not been able to do so yet. How much I would love to see the Dr. over here!

"Wish I could tell you all about the things I see, but that would be impossible, but oh, how glad I will be when the Germans are whipped and this war is ended. I am so glad that we will not stop fighting until the Germans are completely whipped. If you could see all the suffering I am seeing and the hardships! But the wonderful courage of our boys seem to overcome anything.

"We are not so busy now. For a short time several of our nurses were sick. One of them died, but she did not belong to our Unit. I never see anyone that I know. You see, we are at Liverpool on duty, while the rest of the Unit is near Southampton. I have not seen any of them but the few that are here since we arrived in England.

"The news to-day is very encouraging. Won't you be happy when we are all together again? There are so many things I would love to ask you, and you must write me all the news about everything and everybody. I get all the letters and the papers you all send me, and nobody knows how glad I am to read them. I am sending you a handkerchief. It does not look very much, but any way it means something from Ted. Have not had any mail for several days and will be so anxious until I hear from you again.

"With lots of love and hoping to hear from you real soon, I am

Your Loving Son,

SHOWING PATRIOTISM BY CLAIMING EXEMPTION.

Does patriotism, like charity, begin at home? Provost Marshal General Crowder evidently thinks it does, since he is openly appealing to registrants in the new draft to ask for exemption or deferred classification whenever they are entitled to it, even though their patriotism inclines them to waive any such claims. It is evidently felt by the military authorities that the number of able-bodied men of draft age without dependents is ample for the military needs of the country, and that it is just as unpatriotic for a man whose family needs his support to neglect his home duties because of excessive patriotism as it is for a physically eligible registrant without dependents to evade the draft.

IT'S A MISTAKE MADE BY MANY PARIS RESIDENTS.

Many people in a misguided effort to get rid of kidney backache, rely on plaster, liniments and other make-shifts. The right treatment is kidney treatment and a remarkably recommended kidney medicine is Doan's Kidney Pills. Paris is no exception.

The proof is at your very door. The following is an experience typical of the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Paris.

Charles Stewart, tinsmith, Lilles-ton avenue, Paris, says: "I have had three or four attacks of lumbago in the past few years, the first being the worst. There was a constant, dull ache in my back and often sharp, cutting pains darted through it. It sometimes seemed as though I could hardly endure the misery. I tried different remedies to no avail, until I got hold of Doan's Kidney Pills, procuring them from the Ardery Drug Co. The first box helped me and I continued taking them until cured. Attacks since then have always been slight, and Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me."

A Long Island teacher was recounting the story of Red Riding Hood. After describing the woods and the wild animals that flourish therein, she added:

"Teddy Roosevelt!" volunteered one of the boys.—New York Tribune.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give It When Feverish, Cross, Bilious, for Bad Breath or Sour Stomach

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. (adv)

Plenty of sock yarn at Miss Owens. Only the Kitchner toe is accepted now by headquarters. Any other toe will be returned.

Sweaters By the Million.

Contracts for more than a million and a quarter woolen army sweaters, deliveries of which are now being made, were placed some time ago by the American Red Cross, in order to secure a general reserve stock and to get the benefit of such stocks of yarn as were in the manufacturers' hands and could not be secured for use by the chapters. Even hundred and fifty thousand of these sweaters will be sent abroad at once, as the Commission for France has recently requested shipment of the largest quantity possible, and contracts for more will be placed under an appropriation of $2,000,000 set aside for that purpose.

Men, Now Embarking. Get Christmas Labels.

In answer to many inquiries occasioned by the Red Cross part in the shipping of Christmas parcels to soldiers overseas, Lake Division Red Cross Headquarters is to-day able to announce for the information of its organizations that the War Department has arranged to distribute Christmas parcel labels to men now embarking for service overseas.

The president of the First National Bank of Fingal (N. D.), Mrs. Laura A. Batcheller, registered as a file clerk at the A. R. C. Department of Personnel in France the other day.

A frantic telephone call from the military head of a French village—800 refugees just arrived and no food stuffs that could be eaten without cooking arrived from the Red Cross.

Have You Done Your Part?

Have you done all in your power to make the survey of nurses now being carried on by the Government through the Red Cross, a success? Or have you said: "This doesn't concern me; I am not a nurse?"

The Government has asked that all nurses, graduate, undergraduate, practical, nurses-in-training, and all of those women who have taken Red Cross courses shall be named in the survey, so that the crying need for nurses may be met with all possible speed. There are questionnaires to be filled out by each nurse, obtainable from the local chapter of the Red Cross.

You, Mrs. Householder! Are you renting rooms to nurses during their rest days? Do your bit by getting in a supply of questionnaires and asking the nurses in your house to fill them out.

And you, Mrs. Boarding Housekeeper, how many nurses drop in for dinner? During the survey get the habit of asking each nurse if she has responded.

How about you, Mr. Druggist? Many nurses come daily into your shop?

You, too, Mr. and Mrs. Everybody, how many nurses do you number among your friends and acquaintances?

Go, every one of you, to your Red Cross chapter, get a supply of questionnaires, and see how many responses you can get to-day.

Victory Girls' Prayer.

"Our Father, we girls of America come to Thee for our splendid men who fight on land and sea and in the air, that Justice and Right may win the victory. Help them to remember as they sacrifice and suffer how we love and honor them, and how all the world trusts them and looks to them for Freedom. Remembering what they are doing, we come to pledge ourselves to earn and save and serve that all who suffer may be helped, comforted. Give us courage that we may do our best. Make us unselfish that we may truly sacrifice. Make loyal that we may do all our Country asks of us. Help us to care for our bodies that we may be fit for our tasks. Help us to train our minds that we may know how to serve. Give us strength to keep our hearts pure that we may win all battles against evil in our lives and so be worthy to be called the Victory Girls. Amen."

ARMISTICE SIGNED

servants of their war lord, for more than four years his pliant instrument in ravaging the world, have spoken a new word, and the old Germany of blood and lust, rapine and murder, is gone. William of Hohen-zollern, Emperor and King, has been stripped of his power and is now a fugitive in Holland. With his fall topples into ruin his mad desire to conquer the civilized world. Civilization lifts its hands in thankfulness to the Allies and the Americans who encompassed the downfall of this egotistical butcher!

As a clinching reminder of the nearness of peace and the apparent close of the war the Louisville & Nashville railroad company has received orders from the Government for the cancellation of eleven troop trains that had been placed for the transportation of troops to and from the various cantonments. A local employ told THE NEWS man yesterday that the cancellation orders intimated there would be no more entrainment of men for Camp Taylor or any of the army camps in this State.

London dispatches state that advice received from The Hague state that the Dutch Government will instruct the Kaiser and his entire party and that they will not be allowed special privileges.

The London Daily Express states that King Ludwig, of Bavaria, and Crown Prince Rupprecht, the Bavarian heir apparent, have fled the country, their destination and place of concealment remaining unknown. The correspondent added that the King of Sogay will abdicate.

The palace of the Austrian delegation at Budapest has been stormed by a mob which tore down the Austrian escutcheon.

The crews of the German dreadnaughts, Posen, Ostfriesland, Nassau and Oldenburg, in Kiel Harbor, have mutined and joined the revolutionists. The marines occupied the lock gates at Ostmoor and fought down a coast artillery division which offered resistance.

The hospitals of Berlin are crowded with persons wounded during the recent riots Berlin is enveloped in a dense fog from the firing in the streets. The Kaiser's abdication came too late to prevent widespread anarchy in Germany, and the situation is reported as being appalling.

And like its European namesake Paris, that is, Paris, Ky., also celebrated the greatest event in the war, the signing of the armistice which brought the long world-war to an end yesterday. The streets were filled with a jostling eager, enthusiastic crowd, all waiting for the parade which it had been announced would, although gotten up in a short time, celebrate the event. It was the first time so large a crowd had been on the streets of this city since the appearance of the influenza.

A parade was formed on Main street, under the guidance of Rudolph Davis, and marched down Main street in the following order: Police and Grand Marshal Rudolph Davis; Liberty Drum Corps; W. Ed. Tucker and assistants with a mammoth red, white and blue megaphone; Paris Fire Department auto-truck and police patrol, decorated in the national colors; twenty-five automobiles, in single file, all decorated with the national colors. The parade passed around the court house into High street, up High to Twelfth, into Main, where it disbanded.

WHAT ENEMY LOSSES IN SURRENDER.

German surrender terms include: Cessation of hostilities. Evacuation of invaded territories, including Alsace-Lorraine and Luxembourg.

Surrender of vast amounts of guns and equipment.

Evacuation of left bank of Rhine.

Surrender of vast amounts of rolling stock in occupied territory.

Abandonment of Bucharest and Brest treaties.

Unconditional surrender of all German forces in East Africa.

Reparation for damage done.

Surrender of scores of submarines and larger warcraft.

Concentration of aircraft at stipulated points.

Evacuation of all Black Sea ports.

Restoration of all allied and United States merchant vessels.

Duration of the armistice is to be 30 days.

WILSON'S PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—America's great war work now is to assist in the establishment "of just democracy throughout the world," said President Wilson in a proclamation announcing the signing of the armistice to-day. He said: "My fellow countrymen: The armistice was signed this morning. Everything for which America fought has been accomplished. It will now be our fortunate duty to assist by example, by sober, friendly counsel and by material aid in the establishment of just democracy throughout the world."

"WOODROW WILSON."

The President then ordered that all government departments be given a holiday.

SOLDIERS HELD FROM CAMPS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—President Wilson to-day authorized Provost Marshal General Crowder to notify all draft boards that calls now out standing for military service be canceled.

The following instructions have been sent by the Provost Marshal General to all local boards:

"Pending developments in the situation, which arises because of the fact that Germany has signed an armistice providing for cessation of hostilities, the President directs that general and voluntary calls now outstanding for the induction and mobilization of registrants of whatever color or physical qualifications for the army be hereby canceled."

"Pending further instructions, no more inductions shall be made into the army for entrainment permitted or undertaken under such calls."

"The President further directs that all registrants who already are inducted into the army under these calls because of the fact that the day and hour specified in their classification lists have arrived, but who have not been actually entrained for a mobilization camp hereby shall be discharged from the army. The local board shall so notify registrants."

Crowder announced his telegram to draft boards is "merely to cancel outstanding calls and stop the entrainment thereunder of men for the army. All registrants released from induction under the provisions of this telegram are liable for immediate call in the usual manner at any time."

"The orderly process of classification, physical examination and other activities of the selective draft law will not be affected or interrupted as the result of this telegram."

Trains en route to camps now have been ordered back.

McCOMBS OIL COMPANY PROCURES NEW LEASES.

Announcement was made from the Louisville office of the McCombs Producing and Refining Company that the company had completed negotiations for the purchase of leases on the Della Harris farm and the Butcher tract in Lee county, a one-fourth interest in the leases to be retained by the Local Oil and Gas Company of Winchester.

The leases involved approximately 115 acres, and according to authentic information, about 250,000 was paid by the McCombs Company.

There are two wells on the property, one of which, when placed under an eighteen-hour test, pumped 292 barrels. No. 3 was completed recently, but its approximate production has not been learned.

We trust we violate no confidence when he say the Kaiser didn't will the kind of war the allies are handing him at present.

REPORT OF TURNER SALE.

Good prices were obtained last week at the sale of stock, crop, etc., belonging to Mr. W. F. Turner. The sale was conducted by Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes, who makes the following report: Good crowd in attendance, bidding active and prices good; cows sold from $60 to $95 a head; young cattle, from $40 to $75 a head; small shoats, $7 a head; sows from $50 to $75 a head; corn brought $7.90 per barrel; fodder 60c to 64c a shock; one straw stack $20; chickens brought from sixty cents to eighty cents each.

THE INFLUENZA SITUATION.

Seemingly all danger of the influenza assuming an epidemic form in Paris has passed, due to the excellent precautions taken by the authorities. Up to Sunday morning only three new cases had been reported, and all the cases that had been previously reported were getting along nicely, the majority of them well advanced on the road to recovery. There has been one death directly attributed to the influenza, bringing the total number to date to seventeen. Dr. Charles G. Daugherty, local Health Officer, stated that the ban would not be lifted until the disease had been completely and effectively banished from the community.

In pursuance of this policy the mass-meeting scheduled for Friday night at the court house, in the interest of the United War Workers' campaign, was declared off.

HUNTERS PREPARING TO TAKE TO THE FIELDS

The game laws will be "out" on the fifteenth of this month, and already the hunters are making their preparations to go to the fields in search of the quail and rabbit for game. Despite the fact that a large number of Bourbon county boys now have registration cards, or, in the words of the minstrel, "License to hunt the Hun," there is still a large number who have taken out licenses to hunt birds and rabbits.

Last year the price of shells doubled what it was the year before, and this year the boxes have gone to $1.50, which would seem to be one reason for selling fewer licenses. Another would be that so many boys and now in the army, at home and abroad, but there have been a great many very young boys who applied for license this year with the permission of their parents or guardian, but some of them will be disappointed if the health ban is lifted and they have to go back to school before November 15.

Hunters say there are a great many quail and rabbits in the county, and with almost every other form of amusement closed it is very probable that there will be a great many more applicants for license in the days before the fifteenth. So far no large hunting parties have been planned or announced and no extended hunting trips have been outlined.

HIGHEST EVER KNOWN.

Formerly considered almost a daily food, oranges have risen in price so that they can be eaten now only by profiteers and bloated bond holders. (not holders of Liberty Bonds.) The best grade, which are not so good at that, now bring about ten cents each and in some cases two for fifteen cents. The supply is low, and repeat orders hard to get, according to local fruit dealers. Mr. James E. Craven informed THE NEWS man a few days ago that he had placed orders with seven different fruit houses for oranges, and that they could not be obtained except in very small quantities. Out of the seven orders sent to the wholesale houses he received one box of oranges, the wholesale price of which was "out of sight." Lemons and other fruits are also high.

Says General Pershing, referring to one of the war work organizations:

"A SENSE of obligation for the varied and useful service rendered to the army in France . . . prompts me to join in the appeal for its further financial support. I have opportunity to observe its operations, measure the quality of its personnel and mark its beneficial influence upon our troops, and I wish unreservedly to commend its work for the army."

MORE MONEY BEING SAVED IN U. S. THAN EVER BEFORE.

As the result of the nation-wide campaign for the sale of War Saving and Thrift Stamps, more money is being saved in the United States at the present time than ever before, according to Charles A. Hinsch, banker of Cincinnati. Mr. Hinsch gave out the information in the course of his address opening the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association, of which he is president. He added that business is not suffering as the result of the new economy of the American people.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One hundred dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Wash the Socks You Knit With GRANDMA'S Powdered SOAP

WOOLEN SOCKS will not shrink, get hard or knot up when washed with Grandma. No more heartaches after spending hours knitting a pair of socks and then having them ruined by washing with an inferior soap.

GRANDMA'S Powdered SOAP

Follow these instructions and you will never have any trouble: Sprinkle some Grandma in luke warm water—wonderful suds in an instant. Wash the socks in this water then rinse in clear, luke warm water. After rinsing shake out well (do not wring) then hang up to dry slowly. Socks washed this way with Grandma are sure to be soft and fluffy and easy on the feet.

There are hundreds of other uses for Grandma. It is the greatest "all-round" household soap of the age and is by far the most economical. It's powdered—you measure it out with a spoon—no waste. Try it today.

CLOSE-UP MOVIES OF FOLKS AT HOME FOR SOLDIERS.

Plans are now being carried out by which practically every boy in the service in France, from each of several cities, is to have an opportunity to witness a close-up motion-picture of one or more of the loved ones back home, says the December Popular Mechanics Magazine. In each place where the idea has been adopted all relatives and friends wishing to share in this intimate, personal greeting are asked to gather at a central point. Placards bearing cleverly worded greetings have been carried in many processions. One young woman pushed a go-cart in which sat a smiling infant, evidently arrived since the soldier father left for France. On the carriage was this message: "Hello, Dick! Isn't Baby a Darling?"

RED CROSS NEWS GRENADES.

No union hours in a front line canteen! "Last night at 8," writes one A. R. C. officer, "I must have fed 500 men. I got to bed at 10 p. m., and was called at midnight and from then to 6 a. m. fed 800 more."

The Red Cross has as many trades and professions represented in its ranks as the Army. One man cited for bravery shown while distributing chocolate and cigarettes under heavy fire at the front was a New York banker turned canteen worker.

GREATLY BENEFITED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS.

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in short time, and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good," writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y. (adv-nov)

I Owe My Life to PERUNA

Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while playing my trade as auctioneer, it is only natural that I had colds frequently, so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which, through neglect on my part settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but, without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me; so I cannot praise it too highly."

HISTORICAL RECORDS OF COUNTY AND STATE.

Rapid strides are being made by the Kentucky Council of Defense in the organization of a system whereby historical records may be kept for the State in connection with Kentucky's participation in the war. Fred F. Caldwell, State Historian, has just received from the National Defense in Washington, cordial endorsement of the system he has devised for compilation and preservation of records. A war record book has been devised by Mr. Caldwell for the use of the county historian in preparing a detailed report on each man entering the service from the county. The following specific information is provided for on the blanks: Name and rank of the enlisted man and his race, his home address, name and address of the nearest relative, the father's name and address and the maiden name of the mother, age at time of entrance into the service, date of entrance, place of entrance, whether married or single, branch of service, showing for men in the army whether in the infantry, artillery, medical corps or aviation service, and in the navy, whether in the reserves or in the marine corps and on what ship.

The blanks likewise call for all information regarding transfers, promotions and casualties, with a reminder that any additional information connected with the man's military career should be set down. Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland has been appointed as county historian for Bourbon.

ABOUT GROUP.

If your children are subject to group, or if you have reason to fear their being attacked by that disease, you should procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and study the directions for use, so that in case of an attack you will know exactly what course to pursue. This is a favorite and very successful remedy for group, and it is important that you observe the directions carefully. (adv-nov)

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Do You Need Glasses?

Let us make a thorough, scientific examination of your eyes, based on ethical grounds, not to recommend glasses unless you need them. Ask yourself these questions: "Do I have headaches, nervous spells, drawn, tired eyes? Does type sometimes blur? Do I see spots before my eyes?" Answer fairly and squarely, for your own good, for over-strain repeatedly day by day will break down the delicate nerves and muscles of the eyes and irreparable injury may result. Our years of experience insure accurate results.

THE RAINY DAY.

The money that you've laid away against the coming rainy day shall shame you lying idle there. This is the day of real despair! It's needed now in war-swept France, where freedom's warriors advance; it's needed more than you can guess; not all the suffering and distress that now so timidly you dread, when age has come and youth has fled could equal that which you shall know if once our flag is humbled low. Give up the coin you'll never miss, no rainier day can come than this.

This is your country's rainy day; in France the tyrant stands at bay; in France our finest manhood dies to keep Old Glory in the skies; in France the murderous line of guns is mowing down our splendid sons and can you view each thinning rank and still keep money in the bank? Can you hold up your rainy day against the storm across the way? Above our flag explosives hiss; there'll be no rainier day than this!

In bonds for freedom place your gold; they will support you when you're old, but once the Stars and Stripes shall fall you will have lost your home and all. Buy bonds with all your ready cash, the grip of tyranny to smash; buy bonds with all that you can get, buy bonds if you must go in debt, back up the fighting line in France; stay with the boys as they advance. Buy bonds with coin you've put away, you'll never know a rainier day!

U. S. USES 400 SCHOOLS.

(Farm and Family.)

When Uncle Sam asked the colleges and universities to help train men for the army, more than 400 of them responded. They are to train the new branch of the army which is to be known as the Students' Army Training Corps. Fraternity houses and dormitories are to be converted into barracks for the period of the war to house these boys of 18 and over.

This big new training corps, that Uncle Sam is developing, will have two branches—the collegiate for men who have merely finished the grammar course and the vocational for men who have merely finished the grammar grades. The student-soldiers are not in any deferred class of the draft army. They are on active duty and will receive a private's pay. In other words Uncle Sam wishes to have fine young men in training where he can put his finger on them the moment he needs them for special duty in this country or abroad.

Nurses in service overseas need sweaters and warm knitted articles as well as fighting men. A book of instructions for nurses' knitted garments has just been issued by the American Red Cross Department of Nursing with the request that these garments be prepared as quickly as possible in order to reach our nurses in France ahead of the cold weather.

Did one of these 200 letters come to you?

A DUSTY courier slid off his motor-cycle at the big double hut in a French town and tramped up to the canteen.

"Got a note for the secretary from my commanding officer," he said. He handed a piece of paper across the counter to a smiling middle-aged man.

This is the note the Secretary read:

We landed here three days ago—miles from anywhere. Can you send us some supplies, especially writing paper? This is the first chance the boys have had to write home and we have no paper to give them.

The older man looked up and grinned.

"Got you away off in the woods, have they?"

"I'll say they have!"

"Can you carry anything?"

"All you'll give me!"

From the shelves the secretary took big packages of paper and envelopes.

"Too much?" He asked.

"It will be gone ten minutes after I get back!" said the boy.

"Tonight," the secretary went on, "I'll drive out a truck with more supplies and a man to stay with you. And tell the boys that if their letters are finished, I'll bring them back with me tonight, and get them into the mails."

An hour later that motor-cyclist whizzed into camp, loaded down with writing paper, and in ten minutes letters were being written to 200 American homes.

The United War Work organizations know what letters mean to American soldiers. They know that fighters want to get letters and want to write letters.

So in every hut and on every ship your boys find writing paper, envelopes, ink, pens and pencils, and tables where they can get off by themselves and tell the folks back home how things are going.

Millions of sheets are given away free every week to American boys overseas. That is why the letters you get from your boy are written on the stationery of one of these organizations. It is one of the plans to bridge the Atlantic. Help keep the letters coming! Your dollars will supply a whole Company for several days. Dig deep today; help to bind together France and here.

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

The need is for a sum of 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved. Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their:

3,600 Recreation Buildings	2,500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
1,000 Miles of Movie Film	85 Hostess Houses
100 Leading Stage Stars	15,000 Big-brother "secretaries"
2,000 Athletic Directors	Millions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs. Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!

DEATHS.

HALLAM.

Friends in this city and former members of the congregation of the Episcopal church, have been informed of the death in Jackson, Miss., recently of Rev. Frank Hallam, former rector of St. Peter's church, in this city. Rev. Hallam was a brother of Hon. Theodore Hallam, of Newport. He was transferred to the Diocese of Mississippi some time ago.

Miss Long's death was caused by paralysis, with which she had been afflicted some time. She was a most estimable Christian woman. She had many friends here, where she frequently visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilder.

IRELAND.

—The funeral of Mr. George Ireland, aged about thirty-eight, who died at his home in Covington, Friday night, of influenza, was held Sunday afternoon in the Jacksonville Cemetery, in this county, with services conducted by Rev. F. T. Howard. The body was brought to Cincinnati, Sunday morning, and taken from there to the Jacksonville Cemetery for interment.

Mr. Ireland formerly resided near Leeslick, in Harrison county. He is survived by his widow, two children, and two brothers, John and Joseph Ireland, both of Harrison county.

HUNTER.

—The funeral of Mrs. J. Harvey Hunter, aged twenty years, who died at her home on Vine street, in this city, of pneumonia, after a short illness, was held Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, pastor of the Paris Baptist church.

Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Farrow, Mrs. Hunter is survived by her husband, one daughter, and seven sisters, Mrs. Grace Pitts, of Lexington; Mrs. Nellie Crum, Mrs. Annie Sweeney, Misses Maggie, Lucy, Mary and Vina Farrow, and one brother, Mr. James Farrow, all of Paris.

TALBOTT.

The Mt. Sterling Gazette of Wednesday, November 6, pays the following tribute to the late Mrs. Wm. M. Talbott, whose death occurred here several days ago:

"Mrs. William M. Talbott, aged twenty-three, one of the most popular and lovely young women of Paris, died at her home in that city last week after a brief illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Talbott had nursed her husband through a spell of influenza, and, worn out by care, became ill and could not throw off the dread disease. She was a leading church worker and a member of the Christian church choir, and possessed a wonderfully sweet voice, which she used at all times for the betterment of humanity and the world. Her high Christian character and her lovely personality attracted many friends and her death cast a gloom over Bourbon county, her labors for the uplift of everything noble and good, and her charming disposition had reached far away from her home community. To her father, husband and other relatives the sympathy of all goes out in their sorrow."

HARLEY.

—Miss Hattie Harley, aged twenty-five, a graduate of the Massie Hospital Training School for Nurses, died at that institution Saturday, of influenza, after a short illness. Miss Harley, who was head nurse at the Massie Hospital, had, since the beginning of the influenza epidemic in this city, been on duty constantly, helping to minister to the comfort of the patients in the hospital. About ten days ago she had a particularly severe task in handling and endeavoring to control a patient who had become delirious. It was thought that in this way she contracted the disease which resulted in her death.

Miss Harley was a native of Woodford county, and graduated from the Midway Orphan School. When the Massie Hospital School of Nursing was opened Miss Harley came to Paris and matriculated in the class, taking the full course with high honors. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. W. J. Cornish, of Harrodsburg; four sisters, Mrs. W. E. Kiser, of Paris; Mrs. J. E. Kamp, of New York; Mrs. Hattie Lowry, of Lexington, and Mrs. Elmata Brown, of St. Louis, and one half-sister, Mrs. James Goodlet, of Harrodsburg.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis. The pall-bearers were: Dr. Chas. G. Daugherty, Dr. J. A. Gilkey, Dr. William Kenney, Thomas Bowman, Chas. Bowman and Morton Bowman.

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE SAYS "NO LET-UP!"

Mr. A. B. Hancock, Bourbon County Chairman Kentucky Council of Defense, is in receipt of the following: Kentucky Council of Defense, 1616 Inter-Southern Bldg., Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7, 1918. Bulletin No. 33.

To the County Councils of Defense: We have just received the following wire from Hon. Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of Interior, who is Chairman of the Field Division of the Council of National Defense:

"I earnestly beg you not to relax your efforts in the slightest degree on account of the possibility of an early armistice. Even if an armistice should be concluded does not mean that the war is over for a long time. Most of the work which you have been called on to perform must go on undiminished, and I hope every man and woman in the Council of Defense system will stay on the job. In a few days will write you as to the outlook for future work."

Permit us to add our own earnest request to that of Secretary Lane that there shall be no relaxation of your efforts in any direction. Peace is not here yet, and in any event the days of reconstruction will present for us problems more difficult than those of the war itself has presented. KENTUCKY COUNCIL OF DEFENSE.

EDWARD W. HINES, Chairman, PENDLETON BECKLEY, Executive Secretary.

VICTORY BOYS AND GIRLS TO HELP U. W. W. CAMPAIGN.

The Victory Girls, an auxiliary organization, formed to assist in the United War Work Campaign, has been launched in Bourbon County by a number of the county's patriotic young women.

The aim of the Victory Girls in Bourbon County will be to raise $2,500 towards Bourbon's quota in the big United War Work Campaign, and already a number of young ladies are at work on the task.

Miss Louie Bruer, of Paris, is Chairman of Bourbon County, and the county has been divided into twenty sections, the twenty regular voting precincts being the units. From each of these twenty units a Captain is named, who in turn is to assist in securing 510 members from Bourbon County.

At North Middletown, Miss Marie Collins has been designated as Captain, and Mrs. C. M. Best has been appointed Captain at Millersburg.

The Victory Boys, another organization whose purpose is to also assist in the United War Work Campaign, is being perfected in Bourbon County by Bourbon's patriotic young men.

THE STUDENTS' ARMY TRAINING CORPS.

The War Department has issued instructions defining its policy in regard to the change in educational requirements for admission to the collegiate section, Students' Army Training Corps. An effort is being made to keep these units up to authorized strength. Due to the pressing need for officers in all branches of the service, men are continually being transferred to Officers' Training Camps. A new system of recruiting these sections is being worked out, and pending its completion, the War Department directs that institutions where present number of inducted men is less than its authorized quota may certify for induction such students who do not have the prescribed units, but whom the head of the institution and the commanding officer of the unit, jointly, believe to be competent to pursue one of the programs prescribed. Due consideration will be given to such high school training as applicants are relevant to the making of an officer. The purpose of the foregoing arrangement is not to abolish educational standards, but to permit such relaxation as is necessary to bring the strength of the corps to its total authorization.

An applicant for admission to the Students' Army Training Corps should apply by mail immediately to the educational institution of his choice for detailed information.

CENTRAL KENTUCKY SOLDIERS IN MEUSE FRONT BATTLE.

Chief of Staff General March said that the 38th Division (Kentucky and West Virginia), has not been reported since October 23, when it was in action west of the Meuse.

The 38th Division comprises the old Louisville Legion, and the Second and Third Kentucky guard regiments. Thousands of Central and Eastern Kentucky boys are with the 28th Division, reported by General March to be in action along the Meuse front.

The Thirty-eighth was trained at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., after being mobilized at Camp Stanley, Lexington. Few families in this section of the State are not represented in this division and if hostilities continue news from the Meuse front will be watched with intense interest.

The Thirty-eighth only recently embarked for overseas. If fact, it has been but a few weeks since contingents of that division passed through Central Kentucky enroute to the Eastern coast.

A USEFUL CITIZEN.

"That man is a valuable man to his community," said a farmer the other day, pointing out a rather undistinguished-looking man. I listened to hear what remarkable thing the man so spoken of had been doing, and the farmer went on: "He is a blacksmith and a good one. He can fix anything that gets wrong from an automobile down."

For a minute I was disappointed. I had thought from the farmer's speech to hear of something unusual. Then I realized that he was exactly right about it. The skilled blacksmith, the skilled carpenter, the skilled workman of any kind is a valuable asset to the rural community. Many farming neighborhoods suffer for lack of such men. The man who has the manual skill to do well any kind of needed repair or construction work is a man for the community to cherish and to be proud of. The country needs more really competent blacksmiths, and wagon makers and stone masons and carpenters and cabinet makers. The young man who masters any of these trades has a useful future before him, and practically all farm boys need to learn to do more with their hands.

Edward L. Hearn and Lawrence O. Murray, former Comptroller of Currency, are serving abroad as Knights of Columbus Acting Overseas Commissioners.

"The President, seeking rest, visits Colonel House," we are told. There's nothing so restful as to doze in the shadow of the Sphinx.
